To our clients and friends:

During our many years of service, Icon Digital Design & Illustration, Inc has earned a reputation of consistent service, creativity and expertise in the field of providing graphic design services for marketing. Many of you have been with us for the long haul and have helped us establish that reputation. For that, we thank you.

We are pleased to share with you the exciting news of changes in our company. Icon Digital Design & Illustration has merged with Sikich LLP.

Sikich is a professional services firm specializing in public accounting and tax, technology, investment banking, human resources, marketing, retirement planning, and wealth management services. Sikich is an expansive resource which will bring greater value to our clients. By combining two highly complementary organizations and leveraging our business expertise, we are able to access new growth opportunities with our current and new customers.

Although our name will be changed to Sikich, all of those who have worked with you in the past will continue to do so as our team will remain the same and potentially grow. You can be assured that the staff continuity and their experience with your account will present you with a seamless and transparent transition from ICON to Sikich.

Thank you for your continued support. We look forward to serving the Naperville area with superior service for years to come.
